Independent Reading

A Read the following article.

Too Many Tourists¹!

I Venice is a city in Italy. This famous city has more than 150 canals². The canals are like streets, but they are filled with water. So how do people in Venice travel around the city? They use boats.

II Every year, millions of tourists from all over the world visit Venice. Some stay in hotels. Many are passengers on big ships that stop in Venice for a few hours. Tourists like to explore the city's rich history.

5 They like to walk around the old neighborhoods of Venice and see beautiful old buildings, interesting museums, and a lot of modern shops.

III But the tourists make some problems for Venice. Ships and boats make the water around Venice very dirty. Some tourists also throw their trash³ into the water. Other tourists make a lot of noise, and some try to swim in dangerous areas.

10 IV Carlo Ricci lives in Venice. He says, "Tourists bring money to the city, and that's good. Because of the tourists, there are many jobs in hotels and shops. But most of these jobs don't pay well, and it's hard to find better work in Venice. That's why many young people are leaving the city," he says. His wife, Elena, adds,

15 "When I walk around, I want to see my friends and neighbors — not just tourists everywhere. I miss the old Venice."

V Tourists can be good for a city, but in Venice, it looks like there are too many.
